

Academic Honesty Policy

1. There will be no sharing of homework assignments unless otherwise instructed.
2. There will be no talking during a test or quiz.
3. There will be no copying of any other student's work (tests as well as homework).
4. There will be no possessing, buying, selling, or using work that is not one's own.
5. There will be no use of equipment or materials during a test or other academic evaluation which has not been authorized by the teacher (notes, tape recorders, calculators, etc.)
6. Students may not submit someone else's work as their own. This includes internet research papers or assignments.
7. Plagiarism is not allowed. This includes direct copying and rephrasing. If you copy or rephrase, you must document it in the correct way (MLA or APA style). This includes information gained from the internet.
8. There will be no aiding or assisting others to cheat, copy, or plagiarize.

I understand the above policy and realize that if I break any of the above rules, I will be penalized.
